RCOC TO CLOSE WEST HALF OF THE SQUARE LAKE/DEQUINDRE ROAD INTERSECTION FOR APPROXIMATELY 30 DAYS BEGINNING MAY 21 FOR PAVING

Beverly Hills, MI – The Road Commission for Oakland County (RCOC) expects to close the west half of the Square Lake/Dequindre Road intersection in the communities of Troy and Sterling Heights on Monday, May 21, for paving that is part of the ongoing Dequindre Road project.

During the closure, traffic will be maintained on northbound and southbound Dequindre Road and eastbound Square Lake Road (19 Mile Road). Traffic will be unable to access westbound Square Lake Road at Dequindre Road.

The detour for traffic:

- Northbound Dequindre Road detour to westbound Square Lake Road is Dequindre Road to South Blvd to John R, back to Square Lake Road and vice versa.
- Southbound Dequindre detour to westbound Square Lake Road is Dequindre Road to Long Lake Road to John R, back to Square Lake Road and vice versa.
- Eastbound Square Lake Road/19 Mile Road detour is Square Lake Road to John R to Long Lake Road to Dequindre Road, back to Square Lake Road/19 Mile Road and vice versa.
- Westbound Square Lake Road/19 Mile Road detour is Square Lake Road to Dequindre Road to Long Lake Road to John R, back to Square Lake Road and vice versa.

The closure is expected to last approximately 30 days and expected to reopen approximately June 21.
